"When you quarterlifers move back home—and you will—make sure you have this book by your bedside."
—Abby Wilner, Coauthor of Quarterlife Crisis

"When you quarterlifers move back home - and you will - make sure you have this book by your bedside."

- Abby Wilner, co-author of Quarterlife Crisis: The Unique Challenges of Life in Your Twenties

"A life-saving resource for anyone young, broke and contemplating the unthinkable. With this book, moving back home doesn't have to mean that life as you know it is over. Furman shows us there is such a thing as the light at the end of your parents' driveway."

- Jason Anthony, co-author of Debt-Free by 30

YOU CAN GO HOME AGAIN

With the increase in the cost of living, uncertain job outlook, and sky-rocketing student debt, more and more young adults are moving back home with their parents rather than braving life on their own.

Your students can't afford to miss Elina Furman's irreverent, informative, and eye-opening look at how to survive and thrive at home – the second time around! Filled with tales from the trenches and wisdom gleaned from her own experience as a boomeranger, Elina's timely and informative presentation combines audience interaction, dynamic visuals, and startling stats to help your students cope with the practical, economical, emotional, and psychological realities of moving back in with Mom and Dad.
